definitely decorative®

Fall-Winter 2009

dear friends,

I always look forward to a new Definitely Decorative catalog because I'm so excited to see what additions we have made to our product offering. I love home décor, and I think Décor Elements™ and Décor Stencils are both wonderful ways to express your creativity in your own home.

Using the Décor Elements is quick and easy—you can add a seasonal statement to your home in mere moments! I'm looking forward to putting up several of the Christmas images in the gathering area of our home, so the grandchildren are greeted by bright holiday images every time they visit.

And the minute I saw our Halloween images, I started planning Shanna's Haunted Halloween Homecoming—she gets home in October, and you can bet these will be part of the celebration we have planned!

I also personally love, love, LOVE Décor Stencils. The artist in me comes out when I stencil, because I can choose my colors, add shading, and be a little more creative. Stenciling takes a little longer than the Décor Elements, but the ability to personalize my décor even more is worth the extra effort.

Regardless of which you choose—or if you go with both, like me—you'll love what you can do when you combine our Definitely Decorative products with your taste and style.
