Gardner family

Dear friends, Every time I pick up a new Idea Book & Catalog, I feel a thrill of excitement. I still love the old catalog, of course, but I'm always ready for new products, new projects, and new inspiration! This Idea Book & Catalog certainly delivers all of that!

I always look through the stamp section first—after all, it all starts with a stamp! That's been our philosophy here at Stampin' Up!® from the beginning, and stamps continue to be our core product. I know we say it every year, but it continues to be true—we have something for everyone! We've always offered a broad, diverse line of stamp images, and I feel like we've achieved that in this catalog.

After stamps come so many other fun things, many designed to coordinate with our exclusive stamps. Stampin' Up! has a reputation for coordination, carefully designing every creative element (from stamps and paper to ink and accents) to work together. Our suites are created with coordination as their very purpose!

Even as we've branched into other product lines, we've continued to make coordination a priority. Our fabrics feature our colors and images, our Décor Elements and Décor Stencils tie into stamp sets, and there's a digital download for My Digital Studio with nearly every suite!

One thing that came to mind as I looked through this catalog is how fun and refreshing it was to see the many project ideas; no wonder we call this an "Idea Book" as well as a catalog. I love seeing our products used in ways that I would never have thought of!

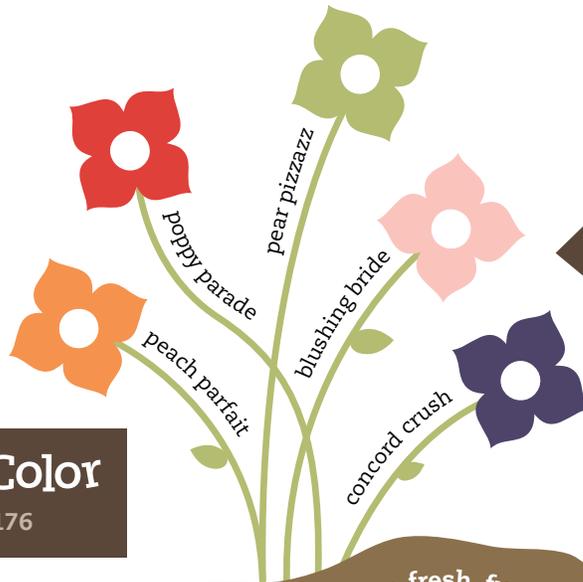

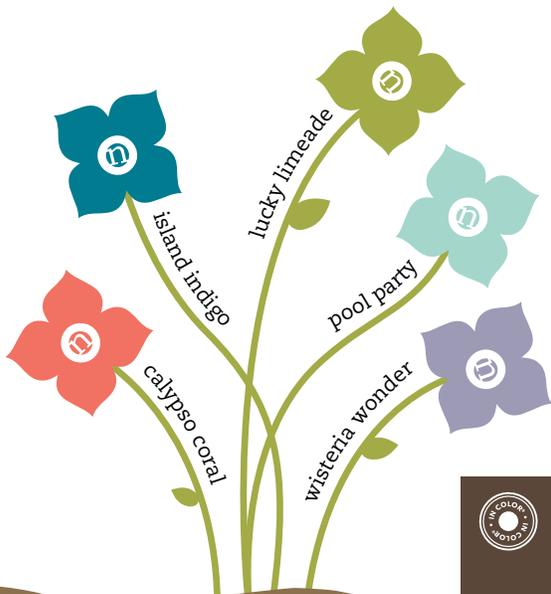

And, for the first time in years, our hostess program has changed—check out the enhanced flexibility and even more rewards! I'm excited about that, and hope you'll consider hosting a workshop so you can share your love of stamping and creativity with your friends, family, and neighbors!

Stamp images often inspire creative gift ideas. The little girl umbrella image in the Lean on Me Set inspired us to create this cute tissue box. She'll definitely get better soon with a handmade gift like this.

Go ahead and cry.
I'll catch your tears.

My thoughts are free

surprising how many times they head in your direction.
