Cost

Convention Guest registration:

$400 US*

*The Canadian fee will be determined on the last business day before registration opens, based on the current exchange rate.

Translation Services

Stampin' Up!® will provide an ASL interpreter for you if you indicate the need for one when you register for convention.

There will also be limited French interpretation services at convention this year.

If you need French or ASL interpretation, please select Track 5.

Convention Confirmation Letter

You should receive a convention confirmation letter by the beginning of July 2008. This letter will include your nametag, a convention bag voucher, and a vegetarian meal ticket (if you indicated this when you registered).

If you do not receive your confirmation letter before convention or if there is a problem with your nametag, bring your confirmation e-mail to the Special Services booth on check-in day.

Check-In and Bag Pickup

You can pick up your bag on check-in day anytime between 9:00 AM and 8:00 PM. Your bag will contain your stamp sets, that you will want to mount before your Make & Take classes.

Class track schedules will be listed in the Convention Program you receive in your convention bag. You can also print the Class Track Schedules document as a reference.

Riverton Campus Tours

Campus tours will run throughout check-in day and on the free evening according to preregistered times. Please refer to your confirmation e-mail for your specific day and time. Shuttles will pick you up outside the South Lobby of the convention center. Make sure that you bring your confirmation e-mail; you'll need it to board the shuttle at your preregistered time. Those who have scooters or wheel chairs please sign up for one of the ADA van options.

Additional Information

Please do not make any travel arrangements or book hotel rooms until you receive a confirmation e-mail.

You may find the following web site helpful in making hotel reservations: www.visitsaltlake.com.

You must be present to receive all convention materials, gifts, handouts, and promotional items. You may not pick them up later or have someone else pick them up for you. Convention gifts are not returnable or exchangeable.

Other than registered attendees, only infants-in-arms are allowed in convention events.
